MAKING CONNECTIONS FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Our mission is to enhance the lives of children and youth 18 years and under, by providing sponsorship for cultural, leisure, and recreational activities to families facing financial barriers to accessing these activities.

HOW IT WORKS

ABOUT US

Our committee is made up of representatives of agencies and community groups who serve children, youth, and their families. We provide financial support to children in the Dryden and surrounding area.

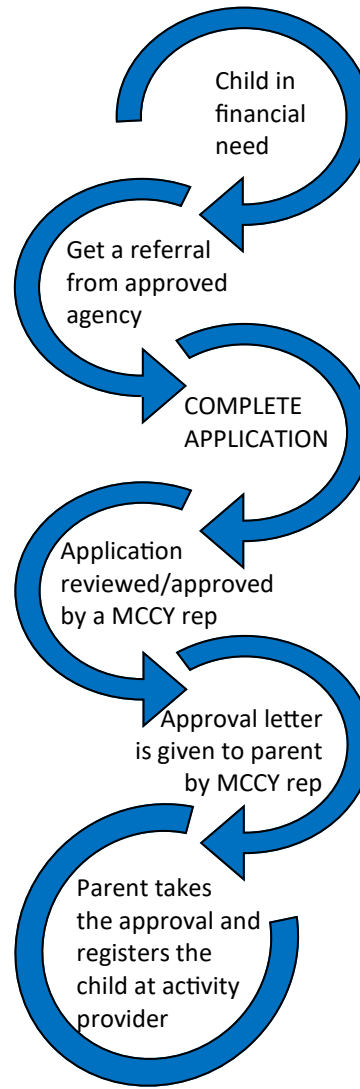

BACKGROUND

The Mayor's Committee for Children & Youth (MCCY) was established in 1998 by the Mayor of the City of Dryden. A universal recreation committee was formed to address financial barriers for children and youth to participate in local recreational activities. Since its formation, the committee has helped 8,000 children access cultural and recreational activities in the area. In January 2017, the MCCY changed their name to MAKING CONNECTIONS FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH and is now partnered with FIREFLY.

NOTE:
The parent is to ensure the child regularly attends the activity.

The parent is to contact the MCCY rep if the child is having difficulty attending or no longer attends the activity.

DO I QUALIFY?

- Consideration is given to children/youth who are not currently participating in paid recreation programs.
- Funding is for one long-term activity per season.
- Consideration for assistance may also be given for short term activities and events.
- If a family is not accessing services from one of the agencies below but does fall within the MCCY financial guidelines, they can still apply to one the agencies below.
